What's new:

DodgeBall VR is a dodgeball video game developed by Ludia and released for Oculus Rift, Touch, the Samsung Gear VR and the HTC Vive headsets. It is the VR version of the 2008 film DodgeBall: A True Underdog Story. It was released digitally on April 26th, 2018, and physically on Oculus Rift, Touch and the Samsung Gear VR. It debuted in February at the 2018 Game Developers Conference.

Gameplay The game is an elaborate dodgeball game, similar to the one shown in the 2008 live-action film, DodgeBall: A True Underdog Story, but it has been made into a VR game. There are four customizable human players that can be controlled by a user, as well as a player who can be played by the game's AI controlled opponent. In addition to dodging billiard balls that are thrown by players, objects also appear on the ground. The game also includes the ability to throw disc-shaped energy balls to players, that are similar to the ones from the film. The player can play against the computer-controlled AI Player, who has five different skill settings for how difficult the game should be played. The computer also features a built in tutorial mode that uses audio cues and visual feedback to teach players how to play. A Facebook Live style chat and forum are also included, and a progress feed of all four human players can be monitored. During battles, players dodge balls thrown by the opponent or by the other human players by moving their head to avoid them. If a player is hit by a ball, they will fall to their knees for several seconds. DodgeBalls are then thrown at the player after a certain amount of time has passed. They hit the player or players in the same way they did in the film. Players regain control of their body when a DodgeBall touches them, and can hit their opponent with a ball thrown before the DodgeBall hits them. Players earn "Owls" for avoiding all of the balls as opposed to becoming hit by one. Other rewards include the ability to play against the other human players after every 5 battles. Players can unlock players that appear in the film and from the TV show DodgeBall for Hire.

Plot The film DodgeBall: A True Underdog Story played out two years in the past, where the main character Kat Williams played the game with her best friend, Pat Ward, her fiancée, Roland Tubbs, her boyfriend and rival Evan Imrich, her brother Walter
